I. INTRODUCTION<sup>1</sup>

The $32.5 million class action settlement (“Settlement”) before the Court between Plaintiff Dennis E. Davis (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of the Settlement Class, and Defendant Symetra Life Insurance Company (“Symetra”), is an extraordinary result for the Settlement Class Members, providing them direct cash compensation for the allegedly excessive cost of insurance charges Symetra deducted from their accounts, without the need for a claim form.<sup>2</sup> By any measure, the Settlement is excellent, and represents a material portion of the alleged overcharges that Settlement Class Members reasonably could have recovered at trial.

The Settlement was reached following nearly 4 years of intensive and contentious litigation culminating in several pending dispositive motions—Plaintiff’s motion for class certification and Symetra’s motions for summary judgment and to exclude Plaintiff’s expert. At the preliminary approval stage, the Court concluded that the Settlement appeared to be fair, reasonable, and adequate and that the standards for class certification were satisfied. Having now been notified of the Settlement, the reaction of Settlement Class Members demonstrates their overwhelming support for the Settlement. Indeed, from a Settlement Class of owners of approximately 43,000 policies, no objections to the Settlement have been submitted. Plaintiff therefore moves the Court for an order finally approving the Settlement and entering final judgment thereon.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. Summary of Litigation

A detailed history of this multi-state class action was set forth in Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval (Dkt. 135) and the Declaration of Patrick J. Stueve in support of that

<sup>1</sup> Symetra does not oppose the relief sought by this motion and agrees that the Court should grant final approval of the proposed settlement. By not opposing this relief, Symetra does not concede the factual basis for any claim and denies liability.

<sup>2</sup> All defined terms herein have the same meanings ascribed to them in the Settlement Agreement. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, attached hereto as Exhibit A is the Class List. Dkt. 135-1 (“Agreement”) at ¶1.6.

1 motion (Dkt. 136) (“Stueve Decl.”), which is incorporated by reference here. Highly 2 summarized, Plaintiff challenges how Symetra determined the cost of insurance (“COI”) rates 3 for its universal life insurance policies as issued on the 33 policy forms owned by members of 4 the proposed class (“Policies”).<sup>3</sup> Plaintiff alleges the Policies do not authorize Symetra to include 5 non-mortality profits or expenses in the COI rates and that Symetra’s use of such factors breaches 6 the COI rates provision in the Policies. Plaintiff further alleges that Symetra’s failure to reduce 7 monthly COI rates for the Policies despite general improvement of mortality expectations 8 constitutes breach of the Policies. At the time of the Settlement, Plaintiff had moved for class 9 certification of an 11-state class of Symetra policyholders who were issued policies in Arizona, 10 California, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Minnesota, Missouri, South Carolina, Texas, or 11 Washington whose policy was in force on or after 2000 (Dkt. 61, 67). Symetra had moved for 12 summary judgment contending that the policy language broadly permits it to set COI rates using 13 factors other than mortality expectations and does not require it to lower COI rates when its 14 mortality expectations improve (Dkt. 94). Symetra also asserted that Plaintiff’s breach of contract 15 claims are barred by the statute of limitations. Id. Symetra had also moved to exclude the 16 testimony of Plaintiff’s expert, Scott J. Witt (Dkt. 81, 86). At the time of Settlement, these 17 motions were fully briefed (Dkt. 80, 96, 100, 102, 110, 112, 118) and the Court had heard over 18 four hours’ worth of oral argument on Symetra’s motion for summary judgment and Plaintiff’s 19 motion for class certification.

20 The negotiations that culminated in the Settlement were conducted by highly qualified 21 and experienced counsel on both sides at arm’s length over several informal settlement 22 discussions throughout the case, as well as a full-day mediation before the Honorable Layn 23 Phillips, retired U.S. District Judge. Due to the litigation history and Class Counsel’s deep 24 experience in litigating cases of this type, Class Counsel were well informed of the material facts 25

26 <sup>3</sup> A list of these 33 policy forms can be found in Appendix 1 to the Declaration of Scott J. Witt filed in support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Class Certification (Dkt. 63).

1 and legal risks and well-positioned to evaluate Symetra’s defenses and the risks facing the 2 Settlement Class Members. Indeed, the risk of continued litigation to Plaintiff and the similarly 3 situated policyholders, and to Symetra, had crystalized at the time of Settlement. The negotiations 4 were hard-fought and non-collusive, Class Counsel advocated for a fair and reasonable settlement 5 that serves the best interests of the Settlement Class, and the resulting $32.5 million Settlement 6 should be finally approved.

7 B. Summary of Settlement

8 The Settlement Agreement represents a compromise between Plaintiff and the Settlement 9 Class and Symetra regarding the claims in the Class Action Complaint. Pursuant to the Settlement 10 Agreement, following the Court’s February 4, 2025, Order Granting Preliminary Approval of the 11 Class Action Settlement (Dkt. 139), a non-reversionary cash Settlement Fund in the amount of 12 $32,500,000 was created. Agreement at ¶¶1.36, 2.1. The Settlement Fund is non-reversionary 13 (meaning no money will be returned to Symetra), and there is no “claims process.” Id. at ¶¶1.36, 14 2.3. Each Settlement Class Member will receive their share of the Net Settlement Fund pursuant 15 to the Distribution Plan developed by Class Counsel with the assistance of a qualified actuary, 16 Scott Witt, who developed the Distribution Plan involving the Policies. Id. at ¶2.2; Dkt. 138 17 (Declaration of Scott J. Witt) at ¶¶6, 14-18; Dkt. 138-2 (Distribution Plan).

18 Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel have moved for an attorneys’ fee 19 award to be paid from the Settlement Fund in the amount of one-third of the Settlement Fund and 20 reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $197,618.82. Dkt. 141; see Agreement at ¶¶1.36, 21 8.1. Class Counsel have also moved for a $25,000 service award for the Plaintiff to be paid from 22 the Settlement Fund. Dkt. 141; see Agreement at ¶¶1.36, 8.2. The Settlement Fund will also be 23 used to pay for the fees and expenses of the Settlement Administrator. Agreement at ¶1.36.

24 The Settlement Agreement allocates the value of the Settlement Fund across the 25 Settlement Class pursuant to an objective Distribution Plan that is designed to provide each 26 Settlement Class Member a minimum payment of $10 plus a pro rata portion of the Net

1 Settlement Fund according to the amount of Monthly Deductions (comprised of the COI charges)
 2 paid by each Settlement Class Member, with equitable adjustments for Settlement Class 3 Members who still have active Policies. See Dkt. 138-2 (Distribution Plan). In exchange, Plaintiff 4 and the Settlement Class Members will release all claims arising out of the facts asserted in this 5 case. Agreement at ¶¶3.1, 3.2.

6 C. The Settlement Class

7 The Settlement Class includes owners of approximately 43,000 Policies that were active 8 on or after January 1, 2000, and were issued by American States Life Insurance Company as 9 MasterPlan, Executive MasterPlan, MasterPlan Plus, Joint MasterPlan Plus, and Juvenile 10 MasterPlan Plus universal life insurance policies and administered by Symetra or its predecessors 11 in interest.<sup>4</sup> Agreement at ¶¶1.6, 1.34.

12 D. The Court's Preliminary Approval Order

13 On February 4, 2025, the Court entered its order preliminarily approving the Settlement 14 and ordering that notice of the Settlement should issue to the Settlement Class. Dkt. 139. As 15 discussed in more detail below, the Court concluded it would likely approve the Settlement as 16 fair, reasonable, and adequate and certify the Settlement Class for purposes of entering judgment 17 on the Settlement. Id. at 3-5.<sup>5</sup> The Court also appointed the undersigned Plaintiff's counsel as 18 Class Counsel pursuant to Rule 23(g)(3) and appointed Analytics LLC ("Analytics") as the 19 Settlement Administrator. Id. at 5. The Court also approved the Class Notice and found that it 20 and the proposed method for its delivery by first-class mail constituted the best practicable notice 21 to the Settlement Class. Id. at 5-6. The Court thus directed the Settlement Administrator and the 22 Parties to carry out the Class Notice program. Id. The Court set a deadline of April 25, 2025, for 23

24 _____
 25 <sup>4</sup> The Settlement Class excludes Symetra; any entity in which Symetra has a controlling interest; 26 any of the officers, directors, employees, or sales agents of Symetra; the legal representatives, heirs, successors, and assigns of Symetra; anyone employed with Plaintiff's law firms; and any Judge to whom this Action is assigned, and his or her immediate family. Agreement ¶1.34.

1 Settlement Class Members to submit objections to the Settlement or to opt-out of the Settlement 2 Class and scheduled a Fairness Hearing for May 19, 2025. Id. at 8.

3 E. The Class Notice Program

4 On January 24, 2025, on behalf of Symetra, Analytics served notice of the proposed 5 Settlement on appropriate officials in accordance with the requirements under the Class Action 6 Fairness Act (“CAFA”), 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b). Supplemental Declaration of Richard W. Simmons
7 at ¶¶19-23. On March 21, 2025, Analytics mailed the Court-approved Class Notice to members 8 of the Settlement Class. Id. at ¶7. Prior to mailing, all addresses were updated using the National 9 Change of Address database maintained by the United States Postal Service (“USPS”), certified 10 via the Coding Accuracy Support System and verified through Delivery Point Validation. Id. at 11 ¶6. Analytics re-mailed Class Notices that were returned as undeliverable where new addresses 12 were available through USPS information (for example, to the address provided by the USPS on 13 returned pieces for which the automatic forwarding order has expired, but which is still during 14 the period in which the USPS returns the piece with the address indicated; or to better addresses 15 that may be found using a third-party lookup service). Id. at ¶8. Analytics’ individual notice 16 efforts resulted in the Class Notice being delivered to over 92.7% of the identified Settlement 17 Class Members. Id. at ¶9.

18 Analytics also established a dedicated Settlement Website where Settlement Class 19 Members have been able to obtain detailed information about the case and review key documents, 20 including the operative Complaint, Answer, Class Notice, Settlement Agreement, Preliminary 21 Approval Order, and Class Counsel’s Motion for Attorneys’ Fees, Expense Reimbursement, and 22 Service Award. Id. at ¶¶14-16. Analytics also established a toll-free telephone number, where 23 Settlement Class Members can call for additional information, listen to answers to FAQs, and 24 speak to a live operator. Id. at ¶¶10-11. Additionally, Analytics created an email address, so 25 Settlement Class Members can correspond by email. Id. at ¶¶12-13.

1 F. The Settlement Class’s Positive Reaction to the Settlement

2 Only 5 policyholders (0.01%) submitted requests to opt-out of the Settlement Class, and 3 no objections to the Settlement or Class Counsel’s Motion for Attorneys’ Fees, Expense 4 Reimbursement, and Service Award were submitted.

5 III. THE SETTLEMENT SHOULD BE FINALLY APPROVED.

6 A. Standard for Final Approval

7 Class action settlements must be approved by the Court. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e). The 8 Settlement should be approved because it is fair, reasonable, and adequate under the factors set 9 forth in Rule 23(e)(2) and those identified by the Ninth Circuit in Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 10 F.3d 1011, 1020 (9th Cir. 1998), overruled on other grounds by Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Dukes, 11 564 U.S. 338, 338 (2011)).

12 The factors identified in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e)(2) are whether:

13 (A) the class representatives and class counsel have adequately represented the class;

14 (B) the proposal was negotiated at arm’s length;

15 (C) the relief provided for the class is adequate, taking into account:

16 (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal;

17 (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class, 18 including the method of processing class-member claims;

19 (iii) the terms of any proposed award of attorney’s fees, including timing of 20 payment; and

21 (iv) any agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3); and 22 (D) the proposal treats class members equitably relative to each other.

23 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2); see also In re Apple Inc. Device Performance Litig., 50 F.4th 769, 780 24 (9th Cir. 2022).

1 In assessing whether relief provided by a settlement is adequate, the Ninth Circuit has 2 expounded on the Rule 23(e)(2)(C) factors by identifying the following “Hanlon” factors for 3 district courts to consider:

4 [1] the strength of the plaintiffs’ case; [2] the risk, expense, complexity, and likely 5 duration of further litigation; [3] the risk of maintaining class action status 6 throughout the trial; [4] the amount offered in settlement; [5] the extent of 7 discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings; [6] the experience and 8 views of counsel; [7] the presence of a governmental participant; and [8] the 9 reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.

10 Campbell v. Facebook, Inc., 951 F.3d 1106, 1121 (9th Cir. 2020) (quoting Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 11 1026) (alterations in original).<sup>6</sup> “District courts may consider some or all of these factors.” Id.

12 In granting preliminary approval of the Settlement, the Court concluded that it would 13 likely be able to (i) approve the Settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate under the above 14 factors; and (ii) certify the Settlement Class for purposes of entering judgment on the Settlement.
15 Dkt. 139. There has been no change in circumstances that would warrant the Court reaching any 16 other conclusion now. Indeed, the Settlement Class Members, now having been apprised of the 17 Settlement, have shown their overwhelming support for it as judged by the very small number of 18 policyholders who have chosen to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class and the lack of 19 objections to the Settlement from Settlement Class Members. For completeness, Plaintiff 20 analyzes the relevant factors again below.

21
22
23
24
25
26 <sup>6</sup> The “Hanlon” factors have also been referred to as the “Churchill” factors, even though the factors are the same. See Kim v. Allison, 8 F.4th 1170, 1178 (9th Cir. 2021) (citing Churchill Vill.
v. Gen. Elec., 361 F.3d 566 (9th Cir. 2004)).

1           B. The Proposed Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate Pursuant to the 2           Factors Identified in Rule 23(e) and Hanlon.

3           As demonstrated below, the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate under 4 the factors identified in Rule 23(e) and by the Ninth Circuit in Hanlon such that the Court should 5 finally approve the Settlement.

6           1. The Class Representatives and Class Counsel Have Provided Excellent 7           Representation to the Class.<sup>7</sup>

8           The adequacy of representation factor supports a finding that the Settlement is fair, 9 reasonable, and adequate. The Court concluded so in entering preliminary approval. Dkt. 139 at 10 3 (“[T]he Court finds that: Plaintiff as class representative (Dkt. No. 135-1 at 19-20) and Class 11 Counsel have provided adequate representation to the Settlement Class....”). First, the 12 Representative Plaintiff has shown his dedication to representing the Settlement Class, helping 13 to develop and review the factual allegations in the Complaint and remaining committed to the 14 case through Settlement. See Dkt. 136 (Stueve Decl.) at ¶35. Plaintiff has worked with counsel 15 to advance the litigation on behalf of himself and all members of the proposed Settlement Class, 16 and supports the Settlement and advocates for its approval. Id. at ¶¶35-36. Plaintiff’s interest is 17 aligned with those of other Settlement Class Members, as he alleges that he suffered and seeks 18 to redress the same injury: the breach of his life insurance policy through alleged excessive COI 19 deductions. See Amchem Prods., Inc. v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 625-26 (1997) (“[A] class 20 representative must be part of the class and possess the same interest and suffer the same injury 21 as the class members.”).

22           Second, Class Counsel are competent, experienced, and qualified, with expertise in class 23 actions and cost of insurance cases on this and other life insurance policies, and have vigorously

25 <sup>7</sup> This Rule 23(e)(2)(A) factor corresponds with certain Hanlon factors, such as “the extent of 26 discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and view of counsel, and the reaction of the class members of the proposed settlement.” See Abadilla v. Precigen, Inc., 2023 WL 7305053, at *8 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 6, 2023) (citing Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026).

1 prosecuted the claims asserted in this case. Class Counsel have been appointed as class counsel 2 in dozens of class actions throughout the country and have significant experience handling
3 complex disputes, including lawsuits involving life insurance contracts. See Dkt. 136 (Stueve 4 Decl.) at ¶¶5-11; Dkt. 136-1 (Stueve Siegel firm resume); Dkt. 136-2 (Schirger Feierabend firm 5 resume).

6 Class Counsel have tried four similar COI overcharge cases, securing jury verdicts in 7 favor of policyholders in all four jury trials. For example, in Karr v. Kansas City Life Insurance 8 Co., Class Counsel secured full compensatory damages on all three breach of contract claims for 9 $28,362,830.96 in COI overcharges. See No. 1916-CV26645 (Mo. Cir. Ct. May 10, 2023). The 10 Missouri Court of Appeals affirmed the jury verdict, agreeing with the trial court's interpretation 11 of the policy language as unambiguously precluding the insurer from loading COI rates with non-12 mortality profits and expenses, and reversed the trial court's denial of prejudgment interest on 13 the $28.36 million damage award, therefore bringing the total recovery to over $48 million, 14 including accrued post-judgment interest. See Karr, 702 S.W.3d 1 (Mo. App. W.D. 2024), 15 transfer denied, No. SC100845 (Mo. Dec. 23, 2024); see also Meek v. Kansas City Life Ins. Co., 16 No. 4:19-cv-472-BP (W.D. Mo. May 25, 2023) ($908,075 jury verdict); Sheldon v. Kansas City 17 Life Ins. Co., No. 1916-CV26689 (Mo. Cir. Ct. Sept. 22, 2023) ($4,095,897.75 verdict).

18 Similarly, Class Counsel successfully tried a COI case against State Farm on behalf of 19 Missouri policyholders, securing a jury verdict of $34,333,495.81 for COI overcharges. See Vogt 20 v. State Farm Life Ins. Co., No. 2:16-cv-04170-NKL, Dkt. 358, 360 (W.D. Mo. June 6, 2018).
21 The Eighth Circuit affirmed the jury verdict, concurred with the district court's interpretation of 22 the life insurance policy language finding that the insurer was precluded from loading COI rates 23 with non-mortality profits and expenses, and reversed the trial court's denial of prejudgment 24 interest, bringing the total recovery to nearly $40 million. See Vogt, 963 F.3d 753 (8th Cir. 2020), 25 cert. denied, 141 S. Ct. 2551 (Apr. 19, 2021).

1 In addition to their extensive trial experience in COI cases, Class Counsel have also 2 obtained numerous settlements in COI overcharge cases. After the litigation referenced above on 3 the State Farm policy, Class Counsel settled two cases against State Farm on a nationwide basis
4 for $325,000,000 and $65,000,000, respectively. See Rogowski v. State Farm Life Ins. Co., 2023 5 WL 5125113 (W.D. Mo. Apr. 18, 2023) (760,000 policies); Niewinski v. State Farm Life Ins.
6 Co., 2023 WL 11984134 (W.D. Mo. Oct. 18, 2023) (445,000 policies); see also Niewinski, 2024
7 WL 4902375 (W.D. Mo. Apr. 1, 2024). In 2021, attorneys from Stueve Siegel and Schirger
8 Feierabend settled a similar case against USAA Life Insurance Company, obtaining $90 million 9 for a class of universal life insurance policyholders. Spegele v. USAA Life Ins. Co., 2021 WL
10 4935978 (W.D. Tex. Aug. 26, 2021). And in 2018, attorneys from Stueve Siegel and Schirger 11 Feierabend settled a similar case against John Hancock Life Insurance Company, obtaining 12 $59.75 million for a class of life insurance policyholders. See Larson v. John Hancock Life Ins.
13 Co., No. RG16813803 (Alameda Cty., Cal. May 8, 2018). In 2016, attorneys from Stueve Siegel
14 and Schirger Feierabend settled another similar case against Lincoln National Life Insurance 15 Company, obtaining $2.25 billion of guaranteed term life insurance with a market value of 16 approximately $171.8 million for a class of policyholders. See Lincoln Nat'l Life Ins. Co. v.
17 Bezich, No. 02C01-0906-PL-73 (Allen Cty., Ind. Feb. 4, 2016).

18 Plaintiff submits that his counsel's track record of obtaining substantial recoveries both 19 through settlement and trial resulted in the outstanding Settlement submitted for approval here.
20 Moreover, Class Counsel's depth of knowledge and experience gained through their extensive 21 experience in COI litigation allowed them to accurately evaluate and weigh the risks of continued 22 litigation to reach a fair settlement of the claims asserted in this litigation, which they believe to 23 be in the best interests of Plaintiff and the Settlement Class. Dkt. 136 (Stueve Decl.) at ¶31. This 24 factor thus supports finding that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. See Forsyth v.
25 HP Inc., 2024 WL 1354551, at *5 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 29, 2024) ("Great weight is accorded to the 26 recommendation of counsel, who are most closely acquainted with the facts of the underlying

1 litigation.”) (quoting Nat’l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 528
2 (C.D. Cal. 2004)); see also Sanchez v. Mohawk Indus., Inc., 2024 WL 4556094, at *21 (E.D. Cal.
3 Oct. 23, 2024) (observing the “opinions of counsel are entitled to significant weight and support 4 approval of the Settlement”).

5 Third, the litigation had reached an advanced stage where significant discovery had been 6 completed, class certification expert witnesses disclosed, and summary judgment and class 7 certification were fully briefed and pending, following oral argument. Dkt. 136 (Stueve Decl.) at 8 ¶¶12-20. “A settlement that occurs in an advanced stage of the proceedings indicates the parties 9 carefully investigated the claims before reaching a resolution.” See Onitverso v. Zamora, 303 10 F.R.D. 356, 371 (E.D. Cal. 2014). “A court is more likely to approve a settlement if most of the 11 discovery is completed because it suggests that the parties arrived at a compromise based on a 12 full understanding of the legal and factual issues surrounding the case.” Taylor v. Populus Grp., 13 LLC, 2022 WL 3045366, at *7 (S.D. Cal. Aug. 2, 2022) (quoting Nat’l Rural Telecomms. Coop., 14 221 F.R.D. at 527 (C.D. Cal. 2004)). Even formal discovery may not be necessary where “the 15 parties have sufficient information to make an informed decision about settlement.” Linney v.
16 Cellular Alaska P’ship, 151 F.3d 1234, 1239 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, Class Counsel had all the 17 information they needed to evaluate Settlement Class Members’ claims for settlement purposes, 18 having vigorously prosecuted the case over three years.

19 2. The Settlement Is the Product of Arm’s Length Negotiations.<sup>8</sup>

20 The extent and scope of litigation confirms that the Settlement is the product of arm’s 21 length negotiations. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(B). As set forth above, the Settlement is the 22 result of significant negotiation by experienced counsel on both sides with the assistance of an 23 experienced, well-respected neutral mediator, culminating in a mediator’s proposal after the case

25 <sup>8</sup> This Rule 23(e) factor “overlaps with certain Hanlon factors, such as the non-collusive nature 26 of negotiations, the extent of discovery completed, and the stage of proceedings.” Andrade- Heymsfield v. NextFoods, Inc., 2024 WL 3871634, at *3 (S.D. Cal. Apr. 8, 2024) (citing Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026).

1 did not settle at the mediation, resulting in the execution of the Agreement. See Dkt. 136 (Stueve 2 Decl.) at ¶¶21-24. The mediator’s proposal and arm’s length nature of the negotiations amongst 3 experienced counsel supports a finding that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. See 4 Grewe v. Cobalt Mortg., Inc., 2016 WL 4014114, at *3 (W.D. Wash. July 27, 2016) (finding the 5 court should “put a good deal of stock in the product of an arms-length, non-collusive, negotiated 6 resolution”) (quoting Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 965 (9th Cir. 2009)); see also 8 parties participated in voluntary mediation before an experienced mediator and “reached an 9 agreement-in-principle to settle the claims in the litigation,” such negotiations are “highly 10 indicative of fairness”); Lusk v. Lopez v. Velocity Transp. LLC, 2024 WL 4957565, at *6 (S.D.

11 Cal. Dec. 3, 2024) (finding the settlement “appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-12 collusive negotiations,” where it was “only resolved via the acceptance of a mediator’s 13 proposal”); Lusk v. Five Guys Enters. LLC, 2022 WL 4791923, at *9 (E.D. Cal. Sep. 30, 2022) 14 (“The fact that the parties engaged in mediation and that the Settlement is based on a mediator’s 15 proposal further supports a finding that the settlement agreement is not the product of 16 collusion.”); Loreto v. Gen. Dynamics Info. Tech., Inc., 2021 WL 3141208, at *4 (S.D. Cal. July 17 26, 2021) (Rule 23(e)(2)(B) is likely satisfied where settlement was “the result of an arm’s length 18 negotiation facilitated by an experienced mediator after the exchange of sufficient 19 discovery[.]”).<sup>9</sup> Accordingly, this factor supports final approval of the Settlement.

1                   3. The Relief Provided by the Settlement Is Excellent.<sup>10</sup>

2                   a. The duration, costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal support
 3                   approval of the Settlement.<sup>11</sup>

4                   The $32.5 million Settlement Fund represents a material recovery for members of the 5 Settlement Class, especially given the risk that, had the case proceeded through trial and all 6 appeals, Plaintiff and the class could have recovered little or no damages. The Court previously 7 concluded that the Settlement “is an excellent result for the Settlement Class in comparison to 8 the very substantial litigation risks facing the Settlement Class Members.” Dkt. 139 at 3.

9                   The Court further found that “the length of time and the expense that would be necessary 10 to continue to litigate Plaintiff’s case through trial and appeal would be considerable.” Id. In the 11 absence of the Settlement, the Settlement Class Members face significant risks, costs, and delay 12 in reaching a litigated judgment in their favor. As explained in Plaintiff’s preliminary approval 13 motion, courts have reached various readings of the relevant policy language. While Class 14 Counsel have secured several jury verdicts in similar cases, these cases compellingly demonstrate 15 the substantial length of time it takes to proceed to trial and then to complete the appellate review 16 process. Class Counsel have prevailed in most of the cases they have prosecuted on behalf of 17 policyholders, however they have not prevailed in all of them. See, e.g., Whitman v. State Farm 18 Life Ins. Co., 2022 WL 4081916 (W.D. Wash. Sept. 6, 2022) (finding the COI rates language 19 permitted the insurer to load non-mortality expenses and profits in COI rates and entering 20 judgment against the certified class of Washington policyholders); see also Norem v. Lincoln

25 <sup>11</sup> Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C)(i). This Rule 23(e)(2) factor overlaps with several Hanlon factors, 26 including “the strength of the plaintiff’s case; the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; the risk of maintaining class action status throughout the trial; and the amount offered in settlement.” Abadilla, 2023 WL 7305053, at *9 (citing Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026).

1 Norem are distinguishable from this case there is real risk that the class could recover nothing 2 through further litigation.

3 Additionally, even if Plaintiff prevailed on his contract interpretation, substantial 4 substantive and procedural challenges remain. No matter the merit of Plaintiff's claims and Class 5 Counsel's prior record of success, a class action jury trial is an inherently risky and unpredictable 6 process. Even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, absent settlement, the issue of policy interpretation, 7 among other issues, would be before the Ninth Circuit for the first time. Consequently, there 8 remains a significant risk that policyholders would recover nothing through further litigation, 9 supporting that the Settlement should be approved. See Franklin v. Kaypro Corp., 884 F.2d 1222, 10 1225 (9th Cir. 1989) (recognizing that "some recovery by way of settlement" of a class action is 11 viewed "more favorably than the risk of recovering nothing"); Kastel v. Cascade Living Grp.
12 Mgmt., LLC, 2024 WL 3565771, at *1 (W.D. Wash. July 29, 2024) ("[S]ettlement at this time 13 will avoid substantial costs, delay, and risks that would be presented by the further prosecution 14 of the litigation."); Tuttle v. Audiophile Music Direct, Inc., 2023 WL 8891575, at *10 (W.D.
15 Wash. Dec. 26, 2023) ("[E]very settlement, by its nature, is the result of compromise.") (citing 16 Linney, 151 F.3d at 1242 ("[T]he very essence of a settlement is compromise, a yielding of 17 absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.") (internal quotation marks omitted)).

18 Moreover, even if Plaintiff were to prevail on all issues, the Settlement Class would likely 19 not obtain their due recovery for years while the verdict is appealed.<sup>12</sup> This delay further supports 20 a finding that the Settlement, which provides a material portion of the damages that Settlement 21 Class Members could have obtained had they prevailed on the merits of their claims, and more 22 than they could have recovered if Defendant prevailed on any one of its defenses, is a fair,

25 with the policyholders not receiving their distributions of the judgment until 2022. Dkt. 136 26 (Stueve Decl.) at ¶33. Similarly, Kansas City Life Insurance Company did not pay judgments against it in Karr and Meek resulting from jury trials in December 2022 and May 2023 for over two years due to the delay inherent in the appeals process, and Kansas City Life has not yet paid

 9 consuming, only adding to the benefit to class members of early settlement in this case”) (citing 10 Rodriguez, 563 F.3d at 966 (explaining that difficulties and risks in litigating weigh in favor of 11 approving a class settlement)); see also Officers for Just. v. Civ. Serv. Comm’n of City & Cnty.

16 b. The effectiveness of the proposed method of distributing relief to 17 the Settlement Class supports approval of the Settlement.<sup>13</sup>

18 Under the Settlement Agreement, the Net Settlement Fund will be distributed pursuant to 19 a proposed Distribution Plan with settlement checks being delivered directly to each Settlement 20 Class Member without the submission of a claim. Agreement at ¶¶2.2, 2.3. The distribution 21 formula will provide each Settlement Class Member with a minimum payment of $10 plus the 22 pro rata portion of the fund according to the amount of COI charges paid by the Settlement Class 23 Member, with an upward adjustment for current owners in recognition of the challenged COI 24 deductions that will continue to be made from their accounts. See Dkt. 138-2 (Distribution Plan).
 25 This is similar to the distribution process used in other COI settlements and approved by courts

 4 final approval of the Settlement. See, e.g., Ludlow v. Flowers Foods, Inc., 2024 WL 1162049, at 5 *7 (S.D. Cal. Mar. 18, 2024) (finding that no claims process for receiving settlement funds 9 § 13:53 (6th ed.) (stating a class settlement distribution method should be “in as simple and 10 expedient a manner as possible”).

11 c. The terms for the award of attorneys’ fees, including the timing of 12 payment, support approval of the Settlement.<sup>14</sup>

13 Class Counsel have sought their fee in the amount of one-third of the Settlement Fund 14 created for the Settlement Class, providing a thorough analysis of the reasonableness of their 15 request in their fee motion. Dkt. 141. Because the fee request is reasonable, and in any event the 16 Settlement is not conditioned upon the Court’s approval of the fee award, Agreement at ¶8.4, the 17 Court should approve the Settlement.<sup>15</sup>

18 d. There is no agreement required to be identified under Rule 19 23(e)(3).<sup>16</sup>

20 Under Rule 23(e)(3), “[t]he parties seeking approval must file a statement identifying any 21 agreement made in connection with the proposal.” There is no agreement between the Parties 24 <sup>14</sup> Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C)(iii).

25 <sup>15</sup> Similarly, Class Counsel have requested a Service Award of $25,000 for Plaintiff and 26 explained why this amount is reasonable. Dkt. 141 at 17. The Parties’ Agreement is not conditioned on the Court’s approval of this request either. Agreement at ¶8.4.

1 here, except those set forth in the Settlement Agreement. Accordingly, this factor is not relevant 2 to whether the Settlement should be approved.

3 e. The lack of a governmental participant supports approval of the 4 Settlement.<sup>17</sup>

5 The lone Hanlon factor that does not overlap with the factors enumerated in Rule 6 23(e)(2), “the presence of a governmental participant,” likewise supports approving the 7 Settlement. See Abadilla, 2023 WL 7305053, at *11 (recognizing that the sole Hanlon factor that 8 does not overlap with Rule 23(e)(2) is “the presence of a governmental participant”) (citing 9 Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026). Here, there is no governmental participant in the lawsuit, nor did this 10 litigation follow a governmental investigation. Thus, there is no doubt Plaintiff and his counsel 11 can “appropriately take credit for the entire settlement amount.” In re Wells Fargo Collateral 12 Prot. Ins. Litig., 2019 WL 6219875, at *3 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 4, 2019) (finding “the presence of 13 government participants” as a “factor weighing against approving the settlement”).

14 4. The Settlement Treats Settlement Class Members Equitably Relative to 15 Each Other, Supporting Approval of the Settlement.<sup>18</sup>

16 The Settlement’s proposed distribution formula determines each Settlement Class 17 Member’s recovery under the Settlement according to the COI charges each paid under their 18 Policies, with an upward adjustment proposed for current policyholders to reflect that they are 19 still paying COI charges.<sup>19</sup> See, e.g., Niewinski, 2023 WL 11984134, at *1; Rogowski, 2023 WL 20 5125113, at *3. The Court has concluded that “the Settlement treats the Settlement Class 21 Members equitably relative to each other by awarding them a proportion of the Cost of Insurance 22 charges they each actually paid, in addition to providing equitable adjustments to Settlement

1 Class Members pursuant to the Distribution Plan.” Dkt. 139 at 3. Thus, this factor supports final 2 approval of the Settlement.

3 IV. CERTIFICATION OF A SETTLEMENT CLASS REMAINS APPROPRIATE.

4 In its Preliminary Approval Order, the Court concluded the Settlement Class satisfied the 5 requirements for certification under Rule 23(a) and (b)(3) for purposes of settlement. Dkt. 139 at 6 4-5. Nothing has changed since the Court’s ruling to call the Court’s conclusions regarding 7 certification of a settlement class into question. Accordingly, for the reasons set forth in his 8 preliminary approval motion, Plaintiff asks that the Court certify the Settlement Class for 9 purposes of entry of judgment on the Settlement.

10 V. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT CLASS COUNSEL’S MOTION FOR 11 ATTORNEYS’ FEES, EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT, AND SERVICE AWARD.

12 On April 3, 2025, Class Counsel filed their Motion for Attorneys’ Fees, Expense 13 Reimbursement, and Service Award (Dkt. 141, “Fee Motion”) seeking one-third of the 14 Settlement Fund and reimbursement of $197,618.82 in litigation expenses and posted the motion 15 to the Settlement Website the same day. See Dkt. 141. As set forth in that motion and the 16 supporting declarations of Class Counsel, a fee of one-third of the Settlement Fund is well 17 supported by established law in this Circuit. Id. No objections were received related to Class 18 Counsel’s fee or expense reimbursement request, which supports approval. See Bendixen v.
19 Sprint Commc’ns Co. L.P., 2013 WL 2949569, at *4 (W.D. Wash. June 14, 2013) (“The absence 20 of objections by class members to Settlement Class Counsel’s fee-and-expense request further 21 supports finding it reasonable.”); see also In re LinkedIn ERISA Litig., 2023 WL 8631678, at *10 22 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 13, 2023) (“And significantly, the lack of any objections to the fee request also 23 supports Class Counsels’ fee request.”); Smith v. Kaiser Found. Hosps., 2021 WL 2433955, at 24 *9 (S.D. Cal. June 15, 2021) (“There have been no objections to the Settlement, signaling the 25 Settlement Class’s approval of counsel’s fee request.”); In re Ins. Brokerage Antitrust Litig., 282 26

1 F.R.D. 92, 121 (D.N.J. 2012) (“The absence of substantial objections by Settlement Class
2 members to the fees requested by Class Counsel strongly supports approval.”).

3 While a lodestar crosscheck is not required in the Ninth Circuit, see In re Bluetooth
4 Headset Prods. Liab. Litig., 654 F.3d 935, 944 (9th Cir. 2011), Class Counsel submitted a 5 lodestar crosscheck analysis, showing hours spent in these actions through early April 2025, 6 resulting in a lodestar multiplier of 2.88. Dkt. 141 at 16. As explained in Plaintiff’s motion, a 7 multiplier in this range, and even one larger, is eminently reasonable given the circumstances of 8 this unique case and risks faced by Class Counsel. As set forth in the Supplemental Joint 9 Declaration of Patrick J. Stueve and John J. Schirger (“Supp. Decl.”), Class Counsel have 10 continued to spend time on this litigation, spending an additional 145 hours as of May 9, 2025 11 on various litigation and settlement tasks, including responding to class member inquiries about 12 the Settlement, working with an actuarial expert regarding application of the allocation 13 methodology to the Class, and preparing the additional final approval motions briefing and 14 supporting material submitted to the Court. See Supp. Decl. at ¶2. These additional hours at the 15 previously identified hourly rates and the anticipated future work related to settlement 16 administration reduce the multiplier to 2.73, further establishing that Class Counsel’s fee request 17 is reasonable under a lodestar crosscheck analysis. See id. at ¶3. For these reasons and those 18 stated in Class Counsel’s Fee Motion, the Court should grant the motion with respect to an award 19 of attorney’s fees.

20 The Fee Motion also requests reimbursement of Class Counsel’s litigation expenses in 21 the amount of $197,618.82. Dkt. 141. No objections were received related to Class Counsel’s 22 expense reimbursement request, even though the Class Notice informed Settlement Class 23 Members that Class Counsel may seek “no more than $240,000” in expenses. See Dkt. 143 at 12.
24 And because the expenses incurred are reasonable, Class Counsel’s request for reimbursement 25 of expenses should be approved.
26

1 Finally, no Settlement Class Member has submitted an objection to the requested service 2 award, indicating the Settlement Class's overwhelming support for awarding $25,000 to Plaintiff 3 for his important contributions to this case for the Settlement Class's benefit.

4 VI. CONCLUSION

5 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court finally approve 6 the Settlement, grant Class Counsel's Motion for Attorneys' Fees, Expense Reimbursement, and 7 Service Award, and enter judgment thereon.

9 DATED this 12th day of May 2025.

10 Respectfully submitted,

DENNIS E. DAVIS, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

SYMETRA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Defendant.

NO. 2:21-cv-00533-KKE

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING MOTION PURSUANT TO RULE
23(e) FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT,
ATTORNEYS' FEES, EXPENSE
REIMBURSEMENT AND SERVICE AWARD

NOTE ON MOTION CALENDAR:
May 19, 2025

1 Before the Court are Plaintiff's Unopposed Motion Pursuant to Rule 26(e) for Final 2 Approval of Class Action Settlement, Attorneys' Fees, Expense Reimbursement, and Service
3 Award ("Final Approval Motion") (Dkt. 145)), and Class Counsel's Motion for Attorneys' Fees, 4 Expense Reimbursement, and Service Award ("Fee Motion") (Dkt. 141). For the reasons detailed 5 herein, the Court GRANTS both motions and dismisses the Action with prejudice

6 I. BACKGROUND<sup>1</sup>

7 Before the Court is the proposed $32.5 million class action settlement ("Settlement")
8 between Plaintiff Dennis E. Davis ("Plaintiff"), on behalf of the Settlement Class, and Defendant 9 Symetra Life Insurance Company ("Symetra" or "Defendant"). On February 4, 2025, the Court 10 entered an order granting preliminary approval of the Settlement pursuant to Federal Rule of 11 Civil Procedure 23(e). (Dkt. 139). In doing so, the Court found that "it will likely be able to 12 approve the Settlement as 'fair, reasonable, and adequate' under the relevant factors[.]" Id. at 3.
13 The Court further found that "it will likely be able to certify the Settlement Class for purposes of 14 entering judgment on the Settlement under Rule 23(a) and (b)(3)." Id. at 4. The Court thus 15 directed the Settlement Administrator and the Parties to provide the Class Notice, as approved 16 by the Court, to the members of the Settlement Class.

17 The Court has been informed that the appointed Settlement Administrator issued the 18 Court-approved Class Notice by first class mail to the Settlement Class Members. The Class 19 Notice advised Settlement Class Members of the material terms of the Settlement and that Class 20 Counsel would seek attorneys' fees of up to one-third of the Settlement Fund, reimbursement for 21 their expenses in an amount up to $240,000, and a Service Award of up to $25,000 for the 22 Plaintiff. Pursuant to the deadlines established by the Court in its February 4, 2025 Order, the 23 Class Notice also notified Settlement Class Members that the deadline to submit objections to 24 the Settlement or to opt-out of the Settlement Class was April 25, 2025.

25 26 <sup>1</sup> This Order incorporates the definitions of the Settlement Agreement (see Dkt. 135-1) for capitalized terms, unless stated otherwise.

1 On April 3, 2025, Class Counsel filed their Fee Motion seeking one-third of the 2 Settlement Fund, reimbursement for expenses in the amount of $197,618.82, and a $25,000 3 Service Award for Plaintiff. (Dkt. 141).

4 Five policy owners excluded themselves from the Settlement Class, and no Settlement 5 Class Members submitted objections. On May 12, 2025, Plaintiff filed his Final Approval 6 Motion. On May 19, 2025, the Court held a Fairness Hearing to consider the pending motions.

7 II. FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

8 To certify a Settlement Class for the purposes of settlement the Court must conclude that 9 the requirements of Rule 23(a) and at least one of the requirements of Rule 23(b) are satisfied.
10 See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23. The Court must also ensure the settlement meets the requirements of Rule 11 23(e). After considering Plaintiff’s Final Approval Motion and the supporting documents, the 12 Court concludes that both rules are satisfied.

13 A. Class Certification.

14 The Settlement Class is defined as follows:

15 All current and former owners of one or more of the MasterPlan, Executive 16 MasterPlan, MasterPlan Plus, Joint MasterPlan, and Juvenile MasterPlan Plus 17 universal life insurance policies issued in Arizona, California, Florida, Illinois, 18 Indiana, Kentucky, Minnesota, Missouri, South Carolina, Texas, and Washington 19 that were in force on or after January 1, 2000, that were issued by American States Life Insurance Company and administered by Symetra or its predecessors in interest.

20 Excluded from the Classes are: Symetra; any entity in which Symetra has a 21 controlling interest; any of the officers, directors, employees, or sales agents of 22 Symetra; the legal representatives, heirs, successors, and assigns of Symetra; 23 anyone employed with Plaintiff’s counsel’s firms; and any Judge to whom this 24 case is assigned, and his or her immediate family.

25 The Court finds that each element of Rule 23(a) and Rule 23(b)(3) are satisfied for 26 purposes of certifying a settlement class.

27 The Court first considers the requirements of Rule 23(a). The Court finds that the 28 Settlement Class is “so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable.” Fed. R. Civ.

1 P. 23(a)(1). Here, there are owners of approximately 43,000 Policies in the Settlement Class, 2 which is plainly too many individuals to join to a case individually.

3 The Court also finds that there is at least one “question[] of law or fact common to the 4 class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(2). “Even a single common question will do,” Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.
5 v. Dukes, 564 U.S. 338, 359 (2011) (cleaned up), so long as it is such that the question “will 6 resolve an issue that is central to the validity of each one of the claims in one stroke,” id. at 350.
7 The question of whether Defendant’s COI rates violated the Policies is common. See Whitman v.
8 State Farm Life Ins. Co., 2022 WL 4081916 at *3 n.3 (W.D. Wash. Sept. 6, 2022) (finding 9 commonality satisfied because plaintiff’s “claims in this action all turned on the interpretation of 10 a standard form contract”); see also, e.g., Advance Tr. & Life Escrow Servs., LTA v. ReliaStar 11 Life Ins. Co., 2022 WL 911739, at *9 (D. Minn. Mar. 29, 2022) (finding commonality satisfied 12 for similar claims for breach of universal life insurance policies as to multi-state class because 13 “each turn on the interpretation of materially similar provisions in form UL insurance policies”).

14 Third, the Court finds that the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical 15 of those of the Settlement Class. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(3). “Ultimately, representatives’ class 16 claims are typical if they are ‘reasonably co-extensive with those of absent class members; they 17 need not be substantially identical.’” Rosas v. Sarbanand Farms, LLC, 329 F.R.D. 671, 686 18 (W.D. Wash. 2018) (quoting Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1020 (9th Cir. 1998)). In 19 assessing typicality, courts look at “whether other members have the same or similar injury, 20 whether the action is based on conduct which is not unique to the named plaintiffs, and whether 21 other class members have been injured by the same course of conduct.” Ellis v. Costco Wholesale 22 Corp., 657 F.3d 970, 984 (9th Cir. 2011). Here, the Policy terms and methodology used to 23 determine the COI rates that were charged were the same for every class member; thus, Plaintiff’s 24 interests are substantively identical to those of the other class members. The requirement of 25 typicality thus is satisfied.

1 Fourth, the Court finds that the “the representative parties will fairly and adequately 2 protect the interests of the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4). “The adequacy inquiry . . . serves to 3 uncover conflicts of interest between named parties and the class they seek to represent.” 4 Amchem Prods., Inc. v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 625 (1997). The Court does not find any conflicts
5 of interest that would preclude a finding of adequacy. The Court therefore finds the adequacy 6 requirement satisfied.

7 The Court now turns to the requirements of Rule 23(b)(3), which requires “that the 8 questions of law or fact common to class members predominate over any questions affecting only 9 individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and 10 efficiently adjudicating the controversy.” Matters pertinent to these findings include:

- 11 (A) the class members’ interests in individually controlling the prosecution or 12 defense of separate actions;
- 13 (B) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already 14 begun by or against class members;
- 15 (C) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims 16 in the particular forum; and
- 17 (D) the likely difficulties in managing a class action.

18 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). When “[c]onfronted with a request for settlement-only class 19 certification, a district court need not inquire whether the case, if tried, would present intractable 20 management problems, for the proposal is that there be no trial.” Amchem, 521 U.S. at 619-20 21 (citation omitted). The Court finds that common questions of law and fact predominate because 22 the relevant contractual language at issue is the same for all members of the Settlement Class and 23 Symetra uniformly administered the Policies in accordance with this language. Moreover, the 24 Court also finds that a class action is superior to individual lawsuits as individual litigations 25 would be more burdensome and less efficient.

1 For these reasons, the Court certifies the Settlement Class, appoints Plaintiff to act as the 2 Settlement Class Representative, and appoints Class Counsel to represent the Settlement Class.

3 B. Class Notice.

4 Next, the Court confirms the Class Notice was implemented in accordance with the 5 Court's February 4, 2025, Order. (Dkt. 139 at 5-6.) The Court further confirms its prior findings 6 that the form and substance of the Class Notice meet, and have met, the requirements of Rule 7 23(c) and the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution.

8 C. Approval of the Settlement.

9 To approve a settlement under Rule 23(e), the Court must find that the settlement is "fair, 10 reasonable, and adequate" after considering several listed factors. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e); see 11 also In re Apple Inc. Device Performance Litig., 50 F.4th 769, 780 (9th Cir. 2022). The Court 12 has considered the identified factors as well as the submissions by Plaintiff. The Court finds that 13 each of the factors listed in Rule 23(e) and identified by the Ninth Circuit support approval of the 14 Settlement in accordance with its preliminary determination. First, the Plaintiff and Class 15 Counsel have adequately represented the Class as reflected by the extensive litigation they 16 undertook against Symetra on these claims and through the negotiation of the Settlement. Second, 17 the Settlement was the product of arm's length negotiation reached only after significant 18 litigation and following mediation and a mediator's proposal. Furthermore, the Settlement was 19 only reached with the assistance of a well-respected neutral mediator. Third, the relief provided 20 by the Settlement—$32,500,000—is plainly significant, particularly given the costs, risks, and 21 delay of trial. Furthermore, the proceeds of the Settlement will be distributed without the need 22 for a claims process, which also supports approval. Fourth, the Settlement treats class members 23 equitably relative to one another because the proceeds will be distributed primarily in proportion 24 to the amount of charges paid by each Settlement Class Member. For these reasons, the Court 25 concludes that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and approves the Settlement.

1           D. Releases.

2           As of the Final Settlement Date, the Releasing Parties shall be deemed to have, and by 3 operation of this Order and the contemporaneously entered Final Judgment shall have, fully, 4 finally, and forever released, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of and from all 5 Released Claims and waived any and all Released Claims against the Released Parties, other than 6 Excluded Claims.

7           E. Dismissal and Continuing Jurisdiction.

8           The Court hereby dismisses this Action with prejudice except the Court retains 9 jurisdiction over this Action and the Parties, attorneys, and Settlement Class Members for all 10 matters relating to this Action, including (without limitation) the administration, interpretation, 11 and effectuation or enforcement of the Settlement Agreement, this Order granting Plaintiff's 12 Unopposed Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement and Class Counsel's Motion 13 for Attorneys' Fees, Expense Reimbursement, and Service Award, and the contemporaneously 14 entered Final Judgment. The Settlement Class Representative and Settlement Class Members are 15 hereby permanently enjoined from filing, prosecuting, maintaining, or continuing litigation based 16 on or related to the Released Claims. This permanent bar and injunction is necessary to protect 17 and effectuate the Settlement Agreement, this Order, and this Court's authority to effectuate the 18 Settlement Agreement, and is ordered in aid of this Court's jurisdiction and to protect its 19 judgments.

20           III. ATTORNEYS' FEES EXPENSES AND SERVICE AWARD

21           Class Counsel request an attorneys' fee award of 33⅓ percent of the $32,500,000 22 Settlement Fund plus reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the amount of 23 $197,618.82. They also request that the Court award a Service Award to Plaintiff in the amount 24 of $25,000 from the Settlement Fund. In support of their requests, Class Counsel submitted a 25 detailed Fee Motion. For the following reasons, the Court grants the requests.
26

1           A. Attorneys' Fees.

2           Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(h), “[i]n a certified class action, the court may 3 award reasonable attorney’s fees and nontaxable costs that are authorized by law or by the 4 parties’ agreement.” As the Supreme Court recognized, “a lawyer who recovers a common fund 5 for the benefit of persons other than himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney’s fee 6 from the fund as a whole.” Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980). The dominant 7 approach for awarding attorneys’ fees in common fund cases is the “percentage of the fund” 8 approach. See, e.g., In re Omnivision Techs., Inc., 559 F. Supp. 2d 1036, 1046 (N.D. Cal. 2008)
9 (“the percentage method in common fund cases appears to be dominant”); Vizcaino v. Microsoft 10 Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 1050 (9th Cir. 2002) (“[T]he primary basis of the fee award remains the 11 percentage method.”). The Court agrees that awarding a percentage of the fund is appropriate 12 here.

13           Awarding fees from a common fund avoids “the unjust enrichment of [the class who] 14 benefit[s] from the fund that is created, protected, or increased by the litigation and who 15 otherwise would bear none of the litigation costs.” In re: Facebook Biometric Info. Privacy 16 Litig., 2022 WL 822923, at *1 (9th Cir. Mar. 17, 2022) (quotation omitted).

17           The ultimate reasonableness of an award “take[s] into account all of the circumstances of 18 the case” Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1048, including “(1) the results achieved; (2) the risk of litigation; 19 (3) the skill required and the quality of work; (4) the contingent nature of the fee and the financial 20 burden carried by the plaintiffs; and (5) awards made in similar cases.” The Court concludes that 21 an award of attorneys’ fees equal to 33½ percent of the Settlement Fund is supported by those 22 factors here.

23           First, the results obtained were significant. The $32.5 million fund reflects a material 24 portion of the alleged overcharges that Plaintiff could have reasonably recovered. Given the risks 25 faced, the Court concludes that the result supports the requested fee.
26

1 Second, Class Counsel undertook representation of Plaintiff and the Settlement Class on 2 a contingent basis and Class Counsel's risk of no recovery was high. Establishing Symetra's 3 liability likewise posed substantial risk considering that courts have come out different ways on 4 the meaning of the key policy language at issue. See Dkt. 94, 110, 118. Symetra levied vigorous 5 statute of limitations challenges, as well as those directed at class certification, expert testimony, 6 and the damages calculations.

7 Third, the Court concludes that the claims present complex and difficult questions that 8 required a high degree of skill and experience, which Class Counsel exhibited here. The Court 9 also finds that Class Counsel exhibited a high degree of skill in obtaining the Settlement as 10 demonstrated by the successful outcome they secured despite being opposed by a highly 11 respected international law firm.

12 Fourth, Class Counsel have invested nearly 4,375 hours on a contingent basis 13 representing the Plaintiff and prosecuting the claims of the Settlement Class. Moreover, given 14 the size of the Settlement Class, they reasonably anticipate spending approximately 100 more 15 hours administering the Settlement. Furthermore, the amount of work required necessarily 16 precluded Class Counsel's ability to take other work, and representing Plaintiff on a contingency 17 basis supports the fee award.

18 Fifth, Class Counsel seek a fee based on a percentage (33 $\frac{1}{3}$  percent) that is common in 19 contingent fee litigation and class actions. The Ninth Circuit has noted that "in most common 20 fund cases, the award exceeds" the 25% benchmark. Knight v. Red Door Salons, Inc., 2009 WL 21 248367, at \*6 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 2, 2009); see also, e.g., Romero v. Producers Dairy Foods, Inc., 22 2007 WL 3492841, at \*1, 4 (E.D. Cal. Nov. 14, 2007) (awarding 33% of common fund and 23 noting that "fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery"); Hallman v.
24 Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 2021 WL 9567171, at *2 (W.D. Wash. June 10, 2021) (awarding 1/3 25 of settlement fund); In re Atossa Genetics, Inc. Sec. Litig., 2018 WL 3546176, at *1 (W.D. Wash.
26 July 20, 2018) (awarding 33.3% of common fund); Goldiner v. Datex-Ohmeda Cash Balance

1 Plan, 2011 WL 13190205, at *1 (W.D. Wash. May 10, 2011) (awarding 1/3 of net settlement
2 fund). Class Counsel have identified several class actions in which courts have awarded fees 3 equal to 33 $\frac{1}{3}$  percent of the settlement fund. Given the amount of work required and the risk 4 undertaken, the Court finds that the percentage requested here is reasonable.

5 Sixth, the Court has considered the lodestar figures submitted by Class Counsel and 6 concludes a crosscheck does not undermine the fee request. Specifically, the lodestar crosscheck 7 results in a multiplier of 2.73. Class Counsel submit cases that support the requested multiplier, 8 and multipliers in the Ninth Circuit have ranged from 0.6 to 19.6. Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1050-51 9 & n.6 (upholding 3.65 multiplier); In re Infospace, Inc., 330 F. Supp. 2d 1203, 1216 (W.D.
10 Wash.) (3.5 multiplier); Steiner v. Am. Broad. Co, Inc., 248 F. App'x. 780, 783 (9th Cir. 2007) 11 (finding 6.85 multiplier to be “well within the range of multipliers that courts have allowed”); 12 Craft v. Cnty. of San Bernardino, 624 F. Supp. 2d 1113, 1123 (C.D. Cal. 2008) (5.2 multiplier).
13 For these reasons, the Court does not find that the fee requested would be tantamount to a windfall 14 but is the product of significant work undertaken by Class Counsel on a contingent basis that 15 resulted in a large settlement.

16 Finally, no objections were received to the request for attorneys’ fees, which also supports 17 approval. See Bendixen v. Sprint Commc’ns Co. L.P., 2013 WL 2949569, at *4 (W.D. Wash.
18 June 14, 2013) (“The absence of objections by class members to Settlement Class Counsel’s fee-19 and-expense request further supports finding it reasonable.”).

20 Class Counsel’s request for attorneys’ fees is therefore reasonable and approved in the 21 amount of one-third of the Settlement Fund.

22 B. Expenses.

23 It is also well established that Class Counsel are entitled to reimbursement of the expenses 24 reasonably incurred investigating and prosecuting this matter. Mills v. Electric Auto-Lite Co., 25 396 U.S. 375, 391-92 (1970). Under the Settlement, Class Counsel may seek reimbursement from 26 the Settlement Fund of all costs and expenses actually incurred. Class Counsel has submitted

1 $197,618.82 in expenses, including a summary by category of the expenses incurred. No 2 objections were received to the request for these reimbursements. And the Court finds these 3 expenses were reasonably incurred and are reimbursable from the Settlement Fund.

4 C. Service Award.

5 The Court also approves the service award of $25,000 for Plaintiff. Courts routinely 6 approve service awards to compensate class representatives for the services they provide and the 7 risks they incur on behalf of the class. Service awards compensate named plaintiffs for work done 8 on behalf of the class, account for financial and reputational risks associated with litigation, and 9 promote the public policy of encouraging plaintiffs to undertake the responsibility of 10 representative lawsuits. See Rodriguez v. West Publishing Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 958-59 (9th Cir.
11 2009); Hartless v. Clorox Co., 273 F.R.D. 630, 646-47 (S.D. Cal. 2011) (“Incentive awards are 12 fairly typical in class actions.”). Here, Plaintiff was necessary to the litigation and settlement 13 effort, his contributions benefited the entire Settlement Class, and no Settlement Class Member 14 objected to the proposed service award. Moreover, Plaintiff likewise benefited the entire 15 Settlement Class by helping develop and review the factual allegations in the complaint and 16 providing key guidance with respect to the Settlement. Given the size of the Settlement Fund, the 17 requested award is de minimis to the amount attributable to each Settlement Class Member. And 18 the amount requested is reasonable. See Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 WL 221862, at *16-17 19 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 26, 2007) (approving $25,000 award to each of four plaintiff representatives from 20 $45 million settlement); Pan v. Qualcomm Inc., No. 16-cv-1885, 2017 WL 3252212, at *13-14 21 (S.D. Cal. July 31, 2017) (awarding $50,000 to seven representatives on a $19.5 million 22 recovery). These amounts are also comparable to those awarded to the named plaintiffs in other 23 recent COI settlements. See Niewinski v. State Farm Life Ins. Co., 2024 WL 4902375, at *5 24 (W.D. Mo. Apr. 1, 2024) (approving service awards of $25,000 each for five named plaintiffs);
25 Rogowski v. State Farm Life Ins. Co., 2023 WL 5125113, at *6 (W.D. Mo. Apr. 18, 2023) 26 (approving service awards of $25,000 for each of eleven named plaintiffs).

IV. CONCLUSION

Plaintiff’s Unopposed Motion Pursuant to Rule 26(e) for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement, Attorneys’ Fees, Expense Reimbursement, and Service Award (“Final Approval Motion”) (Dkt. 145)), and Class Counsel’s Motion for Attorneys’ Fees, Expense Reimbursement, and Service Award (Dkt. 141), are GRANTED, and the case is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

The Settlement Class Members are hereby permanently enjoined from filing, prosecuting, maintaining, or continuing litigation based on or related to the Released Claims. Each party shall bear their own costs except as provided in this Order.

This Court retains jurisdiction over this Action and the parties to administer, supervise, interpret, and enforce the Settlement Agreement, this Court’s Order, and the Final Judgment.
